CANARYS LAUNCHES FIRST-EVER AI-POWERED PRODUCT "Auryis"

Auryis is an advanced compliance assessment platform purpose-built for pharma and life sciences. It intelligently evaluates any digital content—SOPs, clinical trial documents, training materials, marketing assets, and more against:

- External regulations (GxP, FDA, EMA, etc.)
- Internal policies & standards
- Custom business rules and ad hoc compliance checks

Auryis ingests and analyses diverse content types, using a powerful blend of proprietary AI agents, custom machine learning models, and leading large language models. Its assessments are precise, structured, and instantly actionable.

Key Features

- Seamless Content Assessment: Accepts and processes a wide range of digital content (text, PDFs, web pages, structured/unstructured data), mapping each element to specific regulations, internal controls, and custom compliance rules.
- Automated Noncompliance Detection: Instantly highlights risks, policy violations, and potential gaps, prioritizing issues that matter most for your unique operational and regulatory needs.
- Human-in-the-Loop Intelligence: SMEs and compliance experts can review flagged issues, provide feedback, and contribute domain intelligence—constantly improving the underlying ML models for higher accuracy and relevance.
- Custom Rule Integration: Effortlessly encode and enforce new business rules, standards, or temporary conditions for tailored compliance coverage.
- Continuous Learning: The platform updates itself on new regulations and evolving global guidance, reducing manual effort and minimizing the risk of relying on outdated knowledge or biased human interpretation.
- Operational Excellence: Supports process owners in curating and standardizing procedures, ensuring best practices, compliance, and consistent audit-readiness across teams and geographies.

Business Impact

- Reduce Training Burden.
- Cut Costs & Time.
- Mitigate Risk.
- Enable Proactive Compliance Management.
